

'DEAL' TO SPLIT MUSCLE SHOALS PROFIT ALLEGED

Senator McKellar Declares Big Firms Would Monopolize Power If Lease Is Obtained.

SENATOR ASSERTS "TRACKS" ARE PLAIN

Big Concerns, Which Formerly Fought Over Plan, Are Now Agreed, Declares Tennesseean.

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Charges that a deal had been made between the American Cyanamide company, the Union Carbide company and the power companies to divide the profits of Muscle Shoals was made today in the senate by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee.

Later Senator McKellar said he had no proof of the alleged "deal" but the "mosses in tracks" were all there.

Declaring that if these private corporations obtained Muscle Shoals no power would be distributed to adjoining states, Senator McKellar said, "it isn't fair for Alabama to have a monopoly on this power that was created with the money of all the people."

"Formerly they were fighting each other over Muscle Shoals but now they are all for the resolution permitting a congressional committee to negotiate bids. They could well afford to get together for $6,000,000 a year."

Vote Not Fixed.

Efforts to fix a definite time for the senate to vote on the Muscle Shoals resolution failed today. Several requests of Senator Heflin, democrat, Alabama, for unanimous consent to set a time to vote, ranging all the way from today to next Monday, met with objection. Finally he yielded to the suggestion of Senator Smith, democrat, South Carolina, to wait until tomorrow when a better line could be obtained on the proposed legislation.

Chairman Norris, of the senate agriculture committee, leader of the opposition, declared there was no disposition to delay the vote and that it probably could be obtained tomorrow.

On the other hand, Senator Howell, republican, Nebraska, asserted that he knew of a number of senators who wished to speak at length on the resolution and he would oppose any suggestion to shut off debate.

Time Is Short.

Senator Heflin explained that Senator Underwood, democrat, Alabama, who is confined to his home by illness, wished to be present when the vote was called and he hoped to be able to notify him in time. He explained that only 26 days now remained until April 1 when the proposed joint congressional committee would be required to recommend a lease for Muscle Shoals to congress. He asserted that three-fourths of the senate was in favor of the resolution and they should be allowed to vote. Spokesmen for the opposition declined any plan for a filibuster but declined to set a time to vote.

They also blocked an attempt by Senator Fess, republican, Ohio, to limit debate to 15 minutes for each senator. The move to close debate then was postponed until tomorrow although Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the democratic leader, supported Senator Heflin's requests.

Objections were registered by Senators Smith, South Carolina; George, Georgia, democrats; Howell and Norris, Nebraska, republicans.

MORGANATIC WIFE OF CAROL DEMANDS $10,000,000 F R A N C S

Paris, March 4.—Zizi Lambrino, former morganatic wife of Crown Prince Carol of Rumania, has served papers on Carol asking $10,000,000 francs damages for "the prejudice caused by the annulment of our marriage."

Zizi also demands subsidies sufficient to allow her to raise their son, Mircea, "as the son of a royal prince should be raised."

Father Pays, But Mother Buys

WHEN the monthly bills go out they usually come back with a check signed by father. Notwithstanding this, it is a well-known fact that women do practically all of the buying for the home—foodstuffs, wearing apparel, housefurnishings, etc., but it is also a fact that in nearly every instance it is the lady who selects the automobile, the building lot for the home, the apartment that is rented, the daily newspaper that comes into the home, and she is the one who must be satisfied as to price and quality in nearly everything that is purchased. She does the bulk of her purchasing after consulting the offerings in the morning newspaper. Her husband goes to his work and the children off to school, she has the forenoon in which to read advertisements and search for the lowest prices on the articles she desires to purchase.

The morning paper comes at the time that fits in exactly with her daily program, and that is why The Constitution is delivered by carrier every day into more homes in Atlanta and suburbs than any other Atlanta newspaper.

State Commission Votes Its Approval Of Viaduct Plans

CHANGES IN STATE FINANCIAL SYSTEM URGED BY SLATE

Auditor's Report on Treasury Says Business of 1925 Well Handled by "Inadequate Force."

FAVORS CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR

Executive Budget, Special Fund Elimination, All Revenue Centered in Treasury Recommended.

Although books of the Georgia treasury department were well and accurately kept in 1925, S. J. Slate, state auditor, in the report of his annual audit Thursday recommended to Governor Clifford Walker a complete reorganization of Georgia's fiscal and financial system. He urged a change in the constitution to expedite the state's business.

The auditor recommends the system be reorganized to end the fiscal year June 30; an executive budget for control of state expenditures; the elimination of special funds, all revenue to be placed in the treasury and disbursed in number according to major functions of a government with responsible heads.

In making these recommendations, Mr. Slate does not advocate them because of defects in the treasury as it is now constituted. He declared the treasury is well handled, the increasing volume of revenue from $8,000,000 in 1918 to $17,500,000 in 1925, being well cared for by the present "inadequate" force.

Referring to the change in the constitution, Mr. Slate states: "I recommend a change in the constitution, authorizing the legislature to fix the number and salaries of the clerical forces in the treasury's office, as the state's business increases, so that additional help may be employed in a fair way for services and responsibility. I make this, the first recommendation I have made as auditor, which looks to an increase of employees, solely that the state's business may be expedited and I hope that you will transmit these recommendations to the legislature of 1927."

Receipts and disbursements for the year ending December 31, 1925, totaled $12,660,978, according to the audit, and the state's total debt is estimated at $5,284,202. All state banks and depositories were found to be in excellent financial conditions.

The state had on hand a cash balance of $2,512,526.76.

In the receipt column were included: General tax, $2,925,273.22; inheritance tax, $333,069.94; fuel oil tax, 1 cent, $1,338,868.56; franchise and occupational taxes, $1,561,360.08; other items included tax, rents and other revenue derived from the state.

Disbursements included the following: Agriculture, $446,297.80; education, $4,692,267.59; health, $174,777.55; pensions, $1,166,645.89; state hospitals, $1,149,644.87; University of Georgia system, $1,326,330.41. These do not include special funds.

JOHN R. BYINGTON TAKES OWN LIFE

Well-Known Business Man Fires Bullet Into Temple in Garage at Home.

John R. Byington, 43, for the past 17 years office manager of J. P. Allen company, committed suicide by shooting himself through the temple in the garage at his home on Ivy road late Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Byington left a note to his wife going into full details of his financial affairs and directing disposition of his estate, which was a comfortably large one. In view of the fact that there were no eyewitnesses to the tragedy, Coroner Paul Donohoo has ordered an inquest for 9 o'clock this morning at the chapel of Barclay & Brandon, funeral directors, where the body was removed.

A few days ago Mr. Byington was installed as president of the Retail Credit Men's association.

He was a native of Atlanta; a past master of W. D. Luckie lodge, No. 89, F. & A. M., and was a consistent member of the Episcopal church.

For years Mr. Byington has been a teacher of a night commercial course at Tech and was one of the most prominent and popular members of Atlanta's business contingent.

His only survivor is his widow, who was Miss Betty Angier. Funeral services will be held from the Barclay & Brandon chapel Saturday morning, with interment in West View cemetery.

J. P. Allen, president of the concern with which Mr. Byington was long connected, Thursday night paid high tribute to his dead associate.

"Mr. Byington held a high position in our store and was beloved by all the employees and officials," Mr. Allen said. "He was popular with all who knew him, and he was one of the most strictly honest and upright men I have ever known. His business affairs as they related to himself personally and to the store were always in perfect condition and we all feel keenly the loss occasioned by his tragic death."

Action Thursday Completes Official Preliminaries Required by Measure Passed Last Summer

CITIZENS TO VOTE ON BRIDGE PROJECT

S. B. Slack To Represent Legislative Commission In Building of Twin Improvements.

Approval was given general plans for twin viaducts over state-owned railroad tracks at Pryor street and Central avenue by the special legislative commission in session Thursday afternoon in the office of Governor Clifford Walker.

This action completes official approval of the viaduct plans required under the bill which passed the legislature last summer. All that is necessary to assure building of the two viaducts is approval of the people of Atlanta, to be expressed at the polls when the city bond issue comes up for ratification on March 24.

The legislative commission reserved the right to approve detailed plans and engineering specifications for the two viaducts when they are submitted at a later date. It gave its approval Thursday to the general plans as drawn up by Walter F. Schultz, consulting engineer. These plans were submitted to the commission by O. F. Kauffman, city engineer of Atlanta.

Slack Is Representative.

The commission named S. B. Slack, bridge engineer of the state highway department, to represent it as engineer in the viaduct building. It was the opinion of the commission that experience of general engineering supervision of the actual construction should be met by builders of the viaducts.

Approval given Thursday follows approval of the viaduct plans by the state public service commission, city council, the special citizens' viaduct committee and all railroads affected.

Mayor Walter A. Sims represented the city of Atlanta at the Thursday meeting, while the citizens' committee was represented by Robert F. Madhox, chairman.

Members of the commission created by the legislature last summer who were present Thursday included Senators Walter C. Hendrix, of the 35th district; James A. Dixon, of the 17th, and Representative Culppeper, of Fayette; McWhorter, of Oglethorpe; Steel, of Taylor; Harris, of Jefferson, and Williams, of Walton. Senator Hendrix was named chairman and Representative Williams secretary.

Irving Berlin Has New Idea For Future Musical Numbers

TO PUT FRENCH "APPLESAUCE" IN JAZZ

BY RALPH HEINZEN.

Paris, March 4.—Irving Berlin will carry back to the United States a new French dash for his world famous jazz.

The cafes of the Montmartre, with their nightly offerings of French musicians have appealed to the American jazz king. Just before he and Mrs. Berlin left for London he confided to friends here that he intended to add a little of the French "song applesauce" to the tunes he produces in the future.

The American song writer explained it something like this just before he and the former Ellen Mackay shook off the sawdust of Montmartre to continue their honeymoon in London and the moonlit corners of Mediterranean countries:

"If a man like myself happens to be of Russian origin and composes jazz, he puts into it something of a Russian wall. If he is Irish the indomitable Celt creeps in.

"Thus it is with the French. They have a fine musical sense and they have the finest sort of music in the French cafes. I like the universal idea in jazz music, and I can see how some of the applesauce of French songs can be worked into my future musical numbers."

Berlin's "honey-moon" song has not been completed. He confided to friends here that he had hit on a "gem of a germ of an idea" in London on arriving from America and developed it somewhat there, but that it dropped out of sight when he and his wife visited the Montmartre, tasted French dressing and heard French songs. The song Berlin applauded most often was the hit of the Casino De Paris revue, in which the refrain consists of the question:

"Do you know how to plant cabbage like we do our way?"

Innocent enough in its wording, it suggests a suburban gardener's enthusiasm. And then you learn that in France little children are told they are discovered in cabbages which their mothers and fathers plant in the gardens.

FOOD PRODUCTS MERGER ENDED BY COURT RULE

Decree Provides That Corporation Dispossess Itself of Voting Stock in Various Firms.

COMPANY AGREES TO COURT ACTION

Order of Court Is Seen as Barrier in Way of Number of Proposed Consolidations.

New York, March 4.—The great pool of food companies ever attempted was blocked by the government Thursday when Federal Judge Bondy signed a decree ordering the National Food Products corporation, a $100,000,000 body, to dispose of within 60 days, stock it had acquired in competing companies.

The corporation which was organized last October, filed a brief consenting to divest itself of all such interests.

The decree restricts the corporation to ownership of stocks in one company and in one kind of business located in one section of the country. It prohibits National Food Products' directors from being directors in any competing company.

Suit Under Anti-Trust Law.

The action was the result of an equity suit filed by the government February 13 under the Clayton anti-trust act.

It was the claim of the corporation that bankers and prominent food merchants had organized it along the lines of public utility holding companies and that its activities would be to purchase, sell, own and underwrite securities of concerns in the food trade. Official announcement of plans said that the corporation did not plan to take full control of its constituent companies nor contemplate a merger of the properties.

Stock Acquired.

The bill filed against the corporation alleged that it had acquired blocks of stocks in other corporations grouped as follows:

(A) Corporations in the chain grocery business, having combined assets in excess of $80,000,000.

(B) Corporations engaged in the distribution of milk and other dairy products, with combined assets of more than $50,000,000.

(C) Corporations engaged in the manufacture, sale and distribution of condensed milk and kindred products, assets in excess of $5,000,000.

(D) Corporations manufacturing ice cream; assets in excess of $25,000,000.

Stock in the following companies must be disposed of by National Food Products by virtue of Thursday's decree:

Abbott's-Albany Dairies, Inc., the James Butler Grocery stores, the Economy Stores corporation, the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea company, the National Dairy Products company, Reid Ice Cream company and the United States Stores corporation.

ANOTHER SUIT PENDING AGAINST FOOD MERGER.

Washington, March 4.—Signing of the consent decree under which the $200,000,000 National Food Products corporation must relinquish control of competing food companies is the first result of the activity of the department of justice against the recent wave of consolidations.

The department has a suit pending in Baltimore against the other giant food merger recently designed, the Ward Food Products corporation, a $2,000,000,000 project which the department of justice accused of aiming at a nationwide monopoly.

This activity frightened one other great food merger project back into hiding. Negotiations looking to a $250,000,000 merger of the Postum Cereal company and the California Packing company, were hastily dropped when the Ward suit was filed.

BRITISH LEAGUE COUNCIL PROGRAM IS VOTED SUPPORT

Chamberlain Says Germany Has Suggested Conference Over Council Enlargement.

BY CHARLES M. McCANN.

London, March 4.—Germany, through its ambassador in London, has suggested a round-table conference on the dispute over enlargement of the League of Nations council.

HOKE SMITH VOICES APPEAL FOR ISSUE OF STATE BONDS FOR HIGHWAYS AND SCHOOLS.

School Board Chief Urges City Bonds

Declaring that friends of the Atlanta public school system are interested vitally in the entire $8,000,000 bond issue proposal for Atlanta, and advocating all items listed in the plan, Dr. R. M. Eubanks, chairman of the board of education, Thursday pledged his support, and expressed confidence the entire board will favor the proposal in its entirety.

"It is imperative that these bonds be passed, and I sincerely hope that every friend of the Atlanta public schools will register and vote for the passage of the entire issue," he said. "Atlanta schools are sorely in need of this fund if they are to go ahead and keep pace with the growing school population. A large proportion of the schools are holding double sessions now."

"We can accomplish as much with the $3,500,000 proposed in this issue as we did with the $4,000,000 of the former issue, as materials are cheaper and we have already done much of the preliminary work."

"But friends of the schools are not interested merely in the school bonds, but in those for viaducts, waterworks, sewers and everything in the list. We must remember that under the law 26 per cent of the total revenues of the city is set aside for school purposes. The increase of tax values brought about by the improvements the bonds will make possible will bring to the city a larger revenue, and 26 per cent of all this new revenue will go to the school funds."

"We need new viaducts if we are to cope with the traffic congestion and abolish the dangerous grade crossings at Pryor street and Central avenue; we must have additional sewer capacity, for Atlanta has far outgrown her old system; we know how badly the waterworks system is outgrown and how imperative are the improvements called for under the bond issue, and anyone who is familiar with our antiquated and overcrowded city hall knows how much a new building is needed."

"I feel confident that the board of education will officially endorse the proposed bond issue as a whole and that its members will work vigorously for the passage of the bonds, upon which so much depends. I have been assured by a majority of the members that they are heartily in favor of the bonds."

NO INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN SECRETARY

"The Wine of Locarno Is Already Badly Corked," Declares Lloyd George During Debate.

BY CHARLES M. McCANN.

London, March 4.—Germany, through its ambassador in London, has suggested a round-table conference on the dispute over enlargement of the League of Nations council.

Foreign Secretary Chamberlain revealed this to the house of commons just before the close of debate Thursday. The commons later endorsed the government's league council program, 224 to 124.

"The German ambassador called on me this morning," said Chamberlain, "just before I came to the house of commons. When he suggested a round-table conference, not unlike that held at Locarno, to be held Sunday in Geneva, I told him that I regarded such a meeting as absolutely vital."

Denies Disagreement.

Premier Baldwin in outlining the policy the British government will follow at Locarno denied that Chamberlain was in disagreement with the rest of the cabinet. He said that the ministry was merely continuing the stand taken by other British governments and hence had renewed the support of Spain's claim for a permanent seat which Lloyd George's government originally gave.

"No qualifications regarding time or conditions of Spain's admittance were given," said the premier.

"The foreign secretary is working for a solution at Geneva which will be a capable to all nations," he continued. "Despite recent aggravation of difficulties I believe that he will be able to achieve the primary object of his visit to Geneva, namely placing Germany in the league and getting her seated on the council. Naturally we would have rejoiced if that had been the only business of the forthcoming meeting. But it is impossible to fetter Chamberlain with instructions regarding any of the many difficult questions which he must face. The foreign secretary goes to Geneva with the government's fullest confidence."

Frankly admitting the distrust of the British public as to the league council, Chamberlain said, "what the British government wants is mainly to welcome back to the concert of nations our ex-enemy that we may work for reconciliation of friendship and cordiality."

Claims of Spain.

Discussing Spain's claim for a permanent seat Chamberlain added that the Great Britain never had taken the view that the enlargement of the league council should be confined to Germany, Russia and the United States.

Ramsay MacDonald, former premier, showed that he clearly believed Chamberlain already had pledged himself to enlargement of the league council.

Lloyd George charged that British public opinion was against Chamberlain's attitude. "The wine of Locarno," he said, "is already badly corked."

5TH WARD HEARS APPEAL FOR BONDS

Sims Seeks To Name Commission Immediately; Organizations Indorse $8,000,000 Plan.

Fired by indorsements of the $8,000,000 city bond proposal by the Atlanta council, Parent-Teacher association, the International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers, and other organizations, leaders of the bond campaign committee Thursday night took the project before the people in a meeting sponsored by the Fifth Ward Civic league. Following the meeting the league unanimously indorsed the proposal.

Appeals for united support of all items contained in the plan were made by Dr. R. M. Eubanks, president of the Atlanta board of education; W. B. Hartsfield, chairman of the bond campaign committee appointed by Mayor Walter A. Sims; Alderman Allen Couch, a member of the bond committee, and others.

"Every item in the list deserves the vote of every red-blooded Atlantan," Dr. Eubanks declared in launching his speaking drive in behalf of the issue. "Now is the time for Atlanta to do something big and worthy."

JUDICIAL DISTRICT BILL FOR GEORGIA OFFERED IN HOUSE

Members of State Delegation Will Urge Hearing At Early Date by Judicial Committee.

Washington, March 4.—(Special.) Representative Larsen, of Georgia, introduced in the house Thursday the bill agreed upon by the delegation in the house for creation of an additional judicial district in the state to relieve present congestion in the federal courts.

Members of the Georgia delegation will seek to have it considered at an early date by the judicial committee in order that it may be brought before the house as soon as possible. A similar measure was presented to the senate several weeks ago and is expected to be taken up soon by the judiciary committee there.

In a statement explaining the bill, Larsen said:

"The bill as introduced is practically a duplication of that introduced by Senator George in the senate some time ago. It contains, of course, some minor changes recommended by the Georgia delegation and is a result of consultation. All things considered it is, I believe, a good bill and so far as I know will have the active support of every member of the delegation."

Data on Districts.

"It makes a fair division of the work and of the territory so far as producing business is concerned. This is shown from data furnished by the

HOUSE PREPARES STEP TO TIGHTEN PROH MEASURE

Ways and Means Committee Meets Today To Consider Enforcement Plan Reorganization.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.

Washington, March 4.—As the wet blue begins a more intensified campaign for modification of the Volstead act, the house is preparing to take its first step toward tightening up enforcement of the prohibition law.

The ways and means committee meets Friday to consider the bill drafted by the treasury for reorganization of dry law administration, which represents several months of study by Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of enforcement.

This measure, which is sponsored by Secretary Mellon, clothes Andrews with dictatorial powers in enforcement, centralizing authority in his hands. Specifically, it sets up independent bureaus in the treasury on the three phases of prohibition: enforcement, for prohibition, coast guard and customs, each of which will be directly responsible to Andrews. At present, the prohibition unit is under the bureau of internal revenue, from which it will be divorced entirely by the new bill.

The renewed campaign of the wet came in for comment Thursday from Representative Upshaw, Georgia democrat and dry, who declared in a speech in the house that wets will never succeed in amending or repealing the dry law, no matter how hard they fight, and described their reorganization meeting Thursday night as "a wet spasm of a gesture."

Under present organization in the treasury, there was considerable friction during the administration of Roy A. Haynes between him and the internal revenue bureau. All changes of future friction would be eliminated by the new bill.

"MYSTERY BEAST" PROVES TO BE DOG, NOT GIGANTIC BEAR

Atlanta's latest "mystery beast" sensation Thursday night proved to be a very mild sensation after all as "mystery beast" scares have a habit of being.

The "bear" reported for the past two nights to have terrorized in the Haygood avenue-Martin street corner section is only a big, shaggy shepherd dog with the merest taint of a tail which he wags in quite friendly fashion in a stall in the mounted department stable back of headquarters.

Thoroughly aroused negroes suffered a fright for nothing, and the police uselessly exposed their sawed-off shot guns to the night air.

Thursday night they rushed for the second time to the colored section and found hopelessly searching garbage cans for choice morsels, not a bear but a big dog. The animal willingly roared a fright for nothing, and the police are being held there awaiting arrival of his owner.

Business along Martin street and Haygood avenue is reported to be slowly but surely returning to normal.

FORMER SENATOR TELLS COMMITTEE OF STATE'S NEEDS

Appears Voluntarily and Urges Action on Proposal; Says Project Sound Business One.

MANY SPEAKERS BACK POSITION

Sub-Committees Named To Draft Substitutes for All Highway and School Bond Measures.

Former United States Senator Hoke Smith Thursday afternoon gave unequivocal indorsement to the proposal to issue state bonds for highway building and educational expansion, in a speech before a joint session of the house and senate, committees on constitutional amendments.

Senator Smith appeared before the committee voluntarily, stating that while he had not been directly urged to express his views before it, he felt that he would be "treason to his duty as a citizen" if he did not add his voice to the thousands who are pleading with the legislature to allow the state to build its roads and modernize its educational institutions through issues of bonds.

Senator Smith pointed out that both bond issues—highway and education—could be retired and all interest charges met without adding one cent to the burden of the regular taxpayers of the state. Education bonds, he said, could be met through additional revenues which could be secured by the state under terms of the federal inheritance tax law, amended recently by congress to allow states to take 80 instead of 25 per cent of the amounts collected.

Highway bonds, he said, would be retired and all interest paid out of gasoline taxes and motor vehicle fees from motorists who used the roads, without calling on the ad valorem income of the state. They also would relieve counties of the burden on their ad valorem taxpayers now imposed whenever county road bonds were issued, he added.

At the close of the hearing, the committee voted favorably on a resolution directing the chairman to appoint two sub-committees of 12 members each, one sub-committee to draft a substitute for all the highway bond issue measures introduced in the legislature, and the other to draft a committee substitute for all the educational bond issue measures.

The sub-committees will be named at an early date, it was announced.

Others Favor Bonds.

Senator Smith was the first of a lengthy list of prominent public and business men from all over the state who appeared before the committee Thursday. Although the invitation which had been extended by the committee applied to both bond support-

$5,000,000 LOAN MADE TO CATHOLIC CHURCH IN BAVARIA

New York, March 4.—(AP)—Arrangements were completed by New York bankers today for a $5,000,000 loan to the Roman Catholic church of Bavaria, representing the first long-term public borrowing by a religious organization through Wall street channels. An offering of 20-year bonds is planned at an early day. The loan will be a direct obligation of the general union of the eight Bavarian dioceses and the proceeds will be loaned by the union for the construction of educational institutions and hospitals throughout the state of Bavaria.

Horse Sense About ROADS!

No increase in Gasoline and Automobile taxes are needed if we issue Road Bonds.

The present Tag and Gasoline taxes will pay the principal and interest on a $70,000,000 Bond issue WITHOUT DISTURBING the 1 cent of Gasoline tax now going to the counties and WITHOUT DISTURBING the one-half cent of Gasoline tax for inspection.

Automobile owners now pay $8,500,000 per year or 46% of the state's entire revenue. If more revenue must be raised for other purposes, why not tax something else?

Grandmother Denies Guilt ADMITS GIVING MONEY TO EX-CONVICT In Rich Husband's Murder

Chicago, March 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Eliza Nussbaum, the grandmother accused of the murder of her husband, Albert, wealthy invalid contractor, so she might marry John Walton Winn, an ex-convict, also accused of the murder, today told the tawdry story of her romance with Winn.

Testifying in her own defense she said she met Winn 11 years ago when he answered an advertisement her husband placed in a newspaper for a laborer. Winn worked for Nussbaum and boarded at the Nussbaum home, living there a year and a half. For the next eight years she said she saw little of him but wrote to him and sent him money in amounts from $5 to $15 although once she sent him $300.

She maintained that he was "nothing more than a friend but had some queer influence over me and I couldn't refuse him money."

A year ago Winn made threats against her life and had threatened her several times since, she said. "If you ever throw me down, we'll both die together," she quoted him as saying.

Edwin Goff, one of three other defendants, who pleaded guilty and turned state's evidence, had planned to rob Nussbaum and "beat him up" last December, she said, but she rebelled against it. The day Nussbaum was slain, "Grandma" said she went to a neighbor's home to inspect a Christmas present and upon her return was told by Mrs. Delilah Martin, another defendant who has plead-

Curley Declares Mexicans Would Expatriate Lord

Baltimore, Md., March 4.—(AP)—"If the Savior of the world came back to Mexico He would be exiled," Archbishop J. Curley will say in an analysis of the Mexican constitution of 1917, to be published tomorrow in the Baltimore Catholic Review. The analysis is a continuation of an attack on alleged persecution of Catholic priests and nuns in Mexico, launched recently by the archbishop in a speech in Washington.

"To every man it is evident that the constitution was designed to legalize robbery, to destroy the church, to wipe out religion," Archbishop Curley will declare.

"In order to preach the doctrine of Jesus Christ in Mexico, one must be a Mexican by birth. If the Savior of the world came back to Mexico He would be exiled forthwith by Calles, the president, because he is not a born Mexican."

The Texas inquirer who asks concerning the possibility of securing freedom from marriage bonds by mail, intimates that such a method would be particularly acceptable as a journey to Mexico would not be entirely convenient at this time.

PONZI WILL MEET ALL OBLIGATIONS, ATTORNEY CLAIMS

Jacksonville, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Ponzi is ready to meet all the obligations set forth in the certificates for "units of indebtedness" issued against the Charbon Land syndicate, Frank Brennan, attorney for the defense, declared at the hearing of Charles Ponzi, charged with using the mails to defraud, conducted here this afternoon before United States Commissioner Carl Noble.

Following the appearance of Morgan Griswold, postal inspector, who made the complaint against Ponzi, and H. G. Mitchell, of the St. Peter-burg Better Business bureau, as witnesses, the prosecution asked that Ponzi present the entire group of papers pertaining to the establishment of the trust for the Charbon Land syndicate.

Upon the refusal of the defense attorney to present the papers, contending that the government had no right to demand such, the commissioner continued the hearing until Thursday

Better Than Whiskey For Colds and Flu

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirin, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively endorsed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirin and tell him to serve you two "teaspoonfuls." With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspirin is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night. (adv.)

TWO BIG GOTHAM BANKS IN MERGER

New York, March 4.—(AP)—A merger of the National City Bank of New York and the People's Trust company of Brooklyn, bringing together two institutions with combined resources of $1,291,000,000, and deposits of $989,430,000, was announced today. The consolidation strengthens the position of the National City organization as the country's largest bank.

The combination takes the form of a purchase by the National City bank of the entire capital stock of the People's Trust company, the largest and one of the oldest banking institutions in Brooklyn. At a price of $835 a share, the transaction involves about $16,700,000. The smaller organization will be taken over intact.

The latest statement of the National City bank, including its domestic and foreign offices as of December 31, 1925, revealed total resources of $1,215,033,702, with capital of $50,000,000, surplus of $20,000,000 and undivided profits of $13,032,497. Deposits on the same date stood at $921,573,498.

The statement of the People's Trust company as of January 15, 1926, showed total resources of $76,047,628.

its capital is $2,000,000; its surplus and undivided profits $5,133,745, and its deposits $67,800,584.

ROOSEVELT HERO NOW IDENTIFIED AS GERMAN CITIZEN

New York, March 4.—(AP)—A new name was written today on the roster of the heroes of the United States lines.

Officials announced that one of two seamen of the crew of the steamship President Roosevelt who gave their lives for the rescue of the crew of the British freighter Antiope in mid-ocean in January was really Fritz Steger, and not Ernest Heitman, as first reported.

Steger, whose identity was not known to his employers until after his death, shipped under Heitman's name and held American seaman's papers issued to Heitman.

Heitman is said to have lost his papers and life boat ticket early in 1920 and Steger found them. Steger posed as Heitman subsequently, because at that time it was hard for a German citizen to get a job on an American vessel.

SCOTLAND YARD SEIZES WAR PAINT OF 'LADY' THIEVES

London, March 4.—Some of the warpaint of the "Forty Elephants," London's West End band of women thieves, has been seized by operatives from Scotland Yard.

In a series of raids between midnight and dawn the police took many boxes of cosmetics, furs and jewelry which exclusive London shops said had been stolen from them.

The members of the "Elephants," so-called because of their high stature, were absent from their storehouse when the seizure was made and none of them have been apprehended.

The "Forty Elephants" resumed operations recently after most of them had concluded jail sentences.

GERALD CHAPMAN TRANSFERS FIGHT TO SUPREME COURT

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—The petition of Gerald Chapman, now being held in Connecticut for execution on conviction of having murdered a New Britain policeman, asking a review of the action of the lower federal courts was formally docketed today in the supreme court.

Chapman would have the supreme court pass upon the authority of the president to release him against his will so as to permit his execution by the state for murder, and also the right of the state of Connecticut to remove him from the Atlanta penitentiary for trial at a time he was serving a term there for violating a federal law.

MORROW BLOCK BURNS AT FLOWERY BRANCH

Flowery Branch, Ga., March 4.—(Special).—The entire Morrow block, comprising the J. T. Morrow store, postoffice, barber shop of W. C. Cooper and the city courthouse, was completely destroyed by fire at a late hour last night.

The loss, estimated at about $5,000, was only partially covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have been caused by defective wiring and originated in the barber shop bath room.

But for the timely arrival of the Buford fire department the fire, fanned by high winds, would have probably swept over the connecting brick fire wall on the office of the Chattahoochee Furniture company and destroyed the entire business section.

PLAN HEARINGS ON LAKES-TO-SEA CANAL PROJECT

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Submission of an adverse report by a special board of army engineers on the project for an all-American ship canal from the Great Lakes to the sea via the Hudson river has prompted the river and harbor board of engineer corps to set the matter for hearing next Tuesday before transmitting its recommendations to congress.

The proposal, conceived long ago, was revived recently by Chairman

Dempsey, of the house rivers and harbors committee, and involves construction of a canal across northern New York state from Lake Ontario to the Hudson river, following in part the line of the old Erie canal.

The report of the special board, which sat at Buffalo and was headed by Colonel Herbert Deakins, division engineer, based its conclusions on economic factors.

"The principal ground upon which the adverse conclusions are based are that the construction and operation of the proposed waterway would require an expenditure largely in excess of the probable benefits to be derived," said the only announcement made public by the engineers.

BOYLAN ASSAILS MEXICO IN HOUSE

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Withdrawing of American recognition from the Mexican government was demanded in the House today by Representative Boylan, Democrat, New York. He contended that it was impossible for the United States to deal longer with that government in the face of the Mexican constitution, "which disregards the international code generally prevailing among the family of nations."

The time for "temporizing" with the present Mexican government, Mr. Boylan asserted, has passed.

"We can no more negotiate with Mexico," he said, "or continue friendly relations with that country than we could with Russia. The two nations are on a par as far as their attitude toward fundamental rights of humanity are concerned."

In a statement inserted in the Congressional Record he charged that under the Mexican constitution "there are no such things as religious liberty, untrammeled culture, education or freedom of worship."

Amusements

At Atlanta Theater.

President and Mrs. Coolidge and their guests saw "The Big Parade" in the east room of the white house recently. David Mendoza, conductor of the Capitol theater musicians, with a picked orchestra, went from New York to Washington to play the new musical, which was arranged by Mr. Mendoza and Dr. William Axt. Arthur J. Smith, chief projection machine operator at the Capitol, officiated in the same capacity at the white house.

This is the fourth time that Smith has presided over a projection booth at special performances in the white house. "The Big Parade" is the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production of Laurence Stallings' war story, starring John Gilbert with Renee Adoree now at the Atlanta theater, where it will be shown twice daily all this and next week at 2:30 and 8:30 o'clock.

The Howard.

While it is true that "Behind the Front," the new Paramount picture at the Howard, is a picture, it is unfair to limit it to male audiences. Women are going to like it, because of a tender love story which runs through the film. And they're sure to consider Mary Brian one of their favorites after seeing her sincere performance as a charming Red Cross worker. The overture for the week by the Howard orchestra is "Sweethearts." The stage presentation features "The Troubadours" in a program of popular songs as doughboys would sing them.

Loew's Grand.

Atlanta amusement lovers are loud in their praise of the remarkable feats accomplished by the members of the Royal Peking troupe, the headline attraction at Loew's Grand theater this week, which has been characterized as one of the greatest vaudeville acts ever seen here. The troupe, which are seven people in the turn and a program is offered which contains numerous tricks and feats performed

WILBUR WARDS HIGH AIR CONTRACT

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Secretary Wilbur announced today, with authorization of a $234,000 contract for 150 airplane engines to the Packard Motor Car company of Detroit, the largest single aviation contract made by the government since the war, he had completed the placing of orders for naval air service equipment aggregating $6,500,000.

The orders cover 116 planes of various types and 261 engines. Additional contracts nearing signature cover an outlay of $3,700,000 still to be made, which will provide for 127 additional planes.

"All of the planes and engines with the exception of 20 training planes, which will be supplied by the Packard Motor Car company, will be used to equip the two aircraft carriers, Lexington and Saratoga," the secretary's announcement said. Mr. Wilbur added that the announcement showed that the navy was going ahead with its aviation development, but that "it cost money."

The 150 Packard engines covered by the newest contract are of the 800-horsepower type developed by the company in cooperation with navy experts after three years of work. They will go into heavy bombing, scouting and torpedo planes and 20 "consolidated" training planes. A contract also has been placed for 36 Wright "tornado" engines, while the contracts still to be placed include 100 Packard 800-horsepower engines of the same type and size as the Packard 800-horsepower engines which were scheduled to make the Hawaiian flight but was not completed in time to hop off from San Francisco. In connection with the huge order for these engines it was added that it marked "transition from the development to the production stage in this particular engine."

The motors are of the largest type made in the United States. They are made in the Packard plant in Detroit, which is one of the largest aircraft plants in the world. Cotton Prices Rise on Firm Buying Orders

Atlanta, March 4.—(AP)—Cotton prices rose today on firm buying orders from the eastern belt, however, it was felt that conditions would not be so favorable, as precipitation in that quarter has been ample.

New York, March 4.—(AP)—A sharp rebound in stock prices took place today's curb market. Net gains of 3 to 15 points in scores of issues testified to the cessation of forced liquidation, the appearance of strong buying power and the rapid retreat of an over extended short interest, particularly in the public utility issues.

Indications that bear traders were finding it difficult to obtain stock to cover their short sales were seen in the number of cash sales. One block of 2,000 shares of American Rayon Products changed hands in a cash transaction just as the market closed, with 32 fixed as the settlement price.

Recoveries in some of the public utilities reached sensational proportions. American Light and Traction soared 20 points to 220 and then slipped back to 215 while American Gas Electric, American Power and Light, Commonwealth Power, Electric Bond and Share, Southeastern Power and Light, United Light and Power and Gas Improvement closed at a nearly 9 points higher.

Industrials also rallied briskly on a lifting of selling pressure, particularly such issues as Brill Corporation, Electric Refrigerator, General Electric, Gillette Safety Razor, Horn and Hardart, and Stutz Motors all of which showed net gains of 4 or more points.

Oil, which had offered the best group resistance to recent selling pressure, rallied with the other stocks. Vindicator jumped over 10 points to 99 1/2. Humble moved up nearly 4 points to 85 7/8 and International Petroleum, Lago Oil "A," Salt Creek Products and Standard Oil of Indiana, Kentucky and New York closed 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 points above yesterday's final quotations.

General Electric was the bellwether of the advance, soaring 24 1/2 points to 329 1/2, and closing within a point of the top. It was closely followed by American Can, which climbed 2 1/2 points to 312, and then eased to 309.

Other high priced shares also advanced with startling rapidity on buying accelerated by the heavy recovery of the market when the stock of the Chicago Aurora and Elgin Railroad company, has been sold to Samuel Insull, and associates, of Chicago, by Thomas H. Corbin and associates, of Philadelphia, it was announced today.

New York, March 4.—(AP)—Impressive recoveries took place throughout today's stock market after one week of steadily declining prices. Scores of issues rallied 5 to nearly 25 points on buying orders supplied by powerful financial resources in the market.

The market was strong from the outset, indicating that forced liquidation apparently had run its course yesterday, and that fresh buying power was being supplied by the market. Brokers no longer witnessed the spectacle of large blocks of stock being dumped overboard in seeming disregard of bid, but instead there was a persistent demand for the 100 and 200 share lots.

Total sales were 262,400 shares against 3,750,700 in yesterday's record breaking session. The average volume of trading was 1,000 shares a share. The average volume of trading was 1,000 shares a share. The average volume of trading was 1,000 shares a share.

Savannah, Ga., March 4.—L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, in a telegram to the Savannah Press, from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, last night announced that Savannah has been selected as the location for the home for aged conductors and their wives.

Recently Mr. Sheppard and a committee made a tour of Georgia and Florida to select a site for this home. They made two trips to Savannah and on the occasion of their last visit, the committee voted in favor of Savannah as the place for the home.

The site selected is on Oakland island, about 3 miles from Savannah, easily accessible. The city contributed $15,000 and $5,000 was contributed by citizens and the local branch of the Order of Railway Conductors. The site was donated by a local land company. It is expected construction will begin this spring.

Blood of Man Not for Sale Rules M'Carl

Washington, March 4.—A man's life blood is not a commodity to be bought and sold.

By this ruling, Comptroller General McCarl has saved the government a tidy little sum and cut off another source of outside income of soldiers and sailors.

Charles A. Smigler, an enlisted man in the navy, recently gave some of his blood to save the life of Lieutenant Commander Thomas M. Cochran, ill in the naval hospital at League Island, Pa. Subsequently he billed the navy, seeking $25 in payment for "services rendered."

The navy asked that the bill be allowed, pointing out that enlisted men often were called upon to submit to blood transfusions and that hospitals generally paid between $25 and $50 for blood.

But McCarl's job for the last five years has been to watch Uncle Sam's pennies. He ruled that the giving of blood was a "personal service and not the sale of a commodity."

The higher court held that no marital wrong was committed and that in this case the word "grouch," often officially used colloquially in matters of this sort without much meaning or weight, expressed the chronic attitude and fixed habit of the husband.

COURT UPHOLDS HUSBAND'S RIGHT TO HARBOR GROUCH

Boston, March 3.—(United News.) A husband's contention that he has a perfect right to worry his wife into submission by being a perpetual grouch has been upheld by the full bench of the Massachusetts supreme court.

The ruling was in the case of Mrs. Clara A. Murray, of Lynn, against Charles Murray, a set aside the divorce decree that a judge in prelate court had awarded Mrs. Murray on the grounds that she was in fear for her safety because of her husband's grouch.

The higher court held that no marital wrong was committed and that in this case the word "grouch," often officially used colloquially in matters of this sort without much meaning or weight, expressed the chronic attitude and fixed habit of the husband.

FERGUSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF N. E. A.

New York, March 4.—Fred S. Ferguson has been elected president of the Newspaper Enterprise association in succession to Eugene McLean, who has resigned to handle his newspaper interests in California.

Announcement of Ferguson's election was made by Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard organization. Simultaneously Ferguson resigned as vice president of the United Press association and will leave immediately to take up his new duties.

With only 38 years behind him, Ferguson's latest promotion adds a new chapter to his successful career in the news service field. He joined the United Press 10 years ago when he was a reporter in Indianapolis, steadily climbing up through the organization until he became successively New York manager, news manager of the United News, news manager of the United Press, and then vice president in charge of all the news developments of the organization.

During his direction of the United News, this morning newspaper report grew from a supplementary service into a rapidly expanding system. Organized but seven years ago, its wires now extend to every corner of the United States.

ADULT EDUCATION TALKED AT NASHVILLE

Mount Berry, Ga., March 4.—(Special.)—Principal G. L. Green has returned from the Peabody Teachers' college at Nashville, Tenn., where he represented the Berry schools at a regional conference on adult education.

The conference was held under the auspices of the Carnegie corporation of New York and was one of a series of such conferences being held in different sections of the country preliminary to the organization of an American Association of Adult Education. About 30 of the leading educators of the south attended this conference.

Any form of continued education or study after one's regular schooling has been interrupted is included under the head of adult education, Mr. Green said. Such educational work as is done by the extension departments of state colleges, city night schools, library associations, Y. M. C. A. classes, correspondence schools and private institutions like the Berry schools, for the most part would be classed as adult education, he pointed out.

Judge Testifies In Federal Probe Of Whisky Ring

Cleveland, Ohio, March 4.—(AP)—Extended deliberation over evidence in the alleged nation-wide bootleg alcohol conspiracy investigation, will precede any indictment by the federal grand jury, District Attorney A. E. Bernstein said tonight.

"It will be another week before the grand jury brings in a report in the case," he declared. "Four or five weeks should be taken up in its proper consideration, but there will be at least a partial report next week."

Indictments have been pressed by the district attorney's office for two weeks but additional evidence coming in has prolonged the inquiry. Today the presentation of evidence came to a definite standstill.

Municipal Judge John M. Finehout, St. Paul, was the last person to appear before the grand jury.

Just as much mystery surrounded the nature of his testimony at its conclusion as had surrounded his trip from the time he announced in St. Paul that he had been asked to come here. After a two hour conference Judge Finehout and Bernstein, silent on what had transpired in their interview, went before the grand jury together. An hour and a quarter later they emerged, still declining to tell what testimony had been presented.

SUNNY SPAIN SHOWN ATLANTANS, GUESTS OF MRS. WILMER MOORE

A. T. O.'s To Entertain At Novel Dance At Druid Hills Golf Club

BY BEVERLY BURGESS.

What could be more alluring than the subject of Spain—sunny Spain—in its atmosphere of romance and beauty?

Yesterday afternoon at the Driving club, Mrs. Wilmer Moore, the delightful president of the Nineteenth Century History class, gave the members of this class and a very great pleasure of hearing Robert E. Scott, of New York city, on the subject of "Spain, as Seen by An American."

On the vivid word-picture of Dr. Scott, as though they were sitting before a cinema production, club members were carried through this gloriously beautiful country, so replete in age-old interests of every kind.

From the geographical location of this Iberian peninsula they were shown the people, their occupations, their history, their religion, the rule of the Moorish dynasty and its influence on architecture, and then on through the Christian era to the present standing of Spain as a world power.

Spanish influence over Dr. Scott's mother country of Scotland was also touched upon and what was an American nation was indebted to her for many glorious heritages of things beautiful, ennobling and enriching.

After the lecture, Mrs. Moore entertained her guests at a delightful tea, giving her guests a chance to meet Dr. Scott personally.

Philadelphia Visitor.

How warmly the friends of Mrs. Kenneth Matheson are welcoming her after an absence of quite some length from Atlanta!

At the Driving club party of Mrs. Wilmer Moore's yesterday afternoon, not infrequently was heard the remark, "Holla Matheson is more charming than I have ever seen her."

Teas, dinners, luncheons, etc., are rushing her from one to the other, the like of which no debutante could excel in her most popular coming-out days, and this is perfectly as it should be. For who was ever missed more than the Kenneth Mathesons when they left us for Philadelphia a few years ago? Prominent in college, church and social life, their places were not easily filled.

Still the hope is being clung to that Providence will return the Mathesons to us as citizens some kind day.

A. T. O.'s To Have Novelty Dance.

Something new again is there for Atlanta at the hands of her college friends.

This time the distinguishing body will be none other than our old-time friends—the A. T. O.'s at Tech!

During the latter part of April—the exact date to be announced later—these wonderful hosts will entertain at an "Advertisement Ball."

Never before has one been given in Atlanta, so I am informed!

Each couple—as a unit—is to go representing some marketable commodity!

Think of the possibilities here for fun and frolic!

Wouldn't it be fun to see Mary Harris all dressed up in horse harness?

Hortense Adams as grocery store, or Nell Clayton as a plumbing shop? We can't wait to see the developments of such a lead as this!

Broadway Styles.

Have you seen the darling little hoops of gold on the necks of Louise Moore and Anne Spalding?

The latest fad, direct from Broadway, so we are told!

Neck ornaments have undoubtedly been featured this season!

Every time the girls come out they have on some new fad of a neck ornament.

Some one must realize how important the little necessities of dress are in a young lady's toilet ensemble!

And now this new piece is nothing more nor less than a stiff, heavy gold neck bracelet, fitting the snugly.

"How did you get that on?" is always the first question to be propounded upon seeing this ornament as no visible opening it has!

Of course there is a trick in it! A secret spring and catch there is which opens the band sufficiently to

EASTERN CONSISTORY CONSIDERED UNLIKELY

Rome, March 4.—(P)—Calculations in vatican circles lead to the conclusion that Pope Pius does not intend to hold a consistory before Easter, because it would be impossible to comply with the custom of giving the new cardinals three weeks' notice.

It is also customary to hold secret and public consistories on Mondays and Thursdays respectively, and since such ceremonies cannot be held in Easter week, the latest date before Easter for that purpose would be March 22 and March 23, necessitating the notification of the new cardinals March 1.

Therefore, it is believed that the pope has decided to postpone the consistory until May, unless he held one prior to Easter without creating new cardinals.

It is generally admitted, however, that the pontiff will raise to the purple the foreign archbishops in important sees just vacated, notably Malines, the seat of the late Archbishop Mercier. This will render more unlikely the addition of a new American cardinal, the United States already having four cardinals.

COMPROMISE BILL DRAFTED TO AID WESTERN FARMERS

Washington, March 4.—(P)—The department of interior today drafted a bill embodying a compromise agreement between the department and a group of western senators for financial support for settlers on reclamation projects.

The bill was prepared at the request of the western senators, who declined to accept the department's recommendations for state aid to settlers until it was shown that the plan was feasible. Under the terms of the measure $500,000 will be appropriated out of the federal reclamation fund for a three-year experiment in aiding settlers financially.

At the end of three years the farmers given such aid will be compared with those not receiving financial support and these findings will form the basis for a future policy.

PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR EMORY DRIVE

Workers in Emory university's $750,000 Atlanta campaign will gather with the Methodist stewards of the city for a dinner at the Baltimore hotel at 6:30 o'clock tonight to hear addresses by Bishop Warren A. Candler and other speakers.

Three prominent Methodist laymen, George W. West, Bayne Gibson and W. P. Bloodworth, will act as hosts to the gathering.

The purpose of the meeting, according to Mr. West, is to inform the workers and stewards as to the needs of Emory, in order that they may pass this information to the general public during the solicitation March 8 to 19.

It was announced Thursday the workers in the campaign will be divided into two main divisions or "universities," the Methodist and the public-at-large. These divisions will be subdivided into six schools, each bearing the nomenclature of one of the schools at Emory university, each having a "dean" as chairman.

The workers in the schools will be further classified into five classes.

General Chairman H. Y. McCord, who will act as "chancellor" of the combined universities, stated Thursday night the roster of the entire "faculty" will be completed by the end of the week. George W. West is "president" of the Methodist "university" and J. H. Ewing is head of the public-at-large group.

The complete campaign organization will meet for the first time on Monday night, and solicitation will begin Tuesday morning.

EDWARDS SEEKS NATION-WIDE VOTE ON BEER, WINES

Washington, March 4.—(P)—A challenge to Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league, to let the country vote on the question of light wines and beers was issued tonight by Senator Edwards, democrat, New Jersey.

"If, as Mr. Wheeler sarcastically remarks, my proposal could be as futile as my efforts to make New Jersey as wet as the Atlantic ocean, why isn't he willing that the people be given an opportunity of voting 'dry' as he intimates they would?" asked Senator Edwards. "For my part I have the utmost confidence that the result would overwhelmingly favor light wines and beer."

"LONG HAIREDD" SOCIETY FORMED BY GERMAN GIRLS

Jena, Thuringia, Germany, March 4.—(P)—Reluctant to follow the fashion of bobbing their hair, German fanatics of the provinces have organized a "society of long haired maidens." The campaign is marked by no little bitterness. The society's members say that bob haired girls look like Premier Mussolini, of Italy.

Newspaper advertising is being used extensively. "Imagine a bobbed-haired Lorelei combing golden hair six inches long," is one of the society's jibes. "Short locks make Mother Germania look ridiculous," is another.

$1,000,000 Suit Against Kresge By Wife Delayed

New York, March 4.—(P)—The purported refusal of Sebastian S. Kresge, head of the chain stores bearing his name, to sign records of the pre-nuptial examination today postponed opening the suit by his wife, Mrs. Doris Kresge, for $1,000,000 alleged due under a pre-nuptial contract with her. Mrs. Kresge charged her husband, before they were married, promised her some 25,000 shares of Kresge company stock, and then gave her a cheap plush dog from one of his stores instead.

She at first sued for $7,000,000 on the alleged contract, but later reduced this to $1,000,000. Kresge and his wife, who married two years ago, have been separated for some time, it is said. He is more than 20 years her senior.

The suit was called on the supreme court calendar this morning and this afternoon. Both times Nathan Burken, counsel for Mrs. Kresge, said Mr. Kresge had refused to sign the stenographic records of an examination made by court order. Counsel for Mr. Kresge said the records would be signed Monday and the hearing was postponed.

New York, March 4.—(P)—Investigation of the unsolved murder of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, was reopened today when District Attorney Asa Keyes, of Los Angeles, held a long telephone conversation with Mary Miles Minter, former motion picture actress and friend of the slain director.

Mr. Keyes said Miss Minter, who was questioned but not suspected when Taylor was killed in 1921, called him voluntarily.

"Miss Minter wanted to know what phases of the case we were investigating and asked if she could be of any help," Mr. Keyes' assistant, Deputy Assistant District Attorney Davis, said.

Mabel Normand, who also was a motion picture star when the murder occurred and who also was questioned, is also living here, and it was reported that Mr. Keyes would question her.

T. Day, federal enforcement officer, Thursday. The men taken into custody were O. J. Henderson and his sons, Otis and Herbert.

Attorneys representing Mrs. George Remus, of Cincinnati, wife of the "millionaire bootlegger," who recently completed a sentence in the federal prison here, were busy in Atlanta Thursday obtaining depositions of prison officials and guards which they expect to use in divorce proceedings now pending in Cincinnati courts between Remus and his wife.

Among those who appeared before Harvey L. Parry, notary, and filed depositions in the case, were Warden John Snook and several prison guards and former prisoners. According to information obtained at the federal building, the depositions were in reference to Mrs. Remus' conduct while she was here visiting her husband.

BULLET HITS DOG AND RICOCHETING, STRIKES OFFICER

A pistol bullet fired into the skull of a mad dog and ricocheting from the pavement nearly snuffed out the life of Officer John Bowman Thursday on Corbett, near Means street.

Officer Bowman, accompanied by Policeman P. B. Dailey, rushed to the scene after receiving a call at headquarters. The dog fled when they jumped from the car, Dailey pursuing on foot and Bowman taking up the chase in the automobile.

When they reached Corbett and Means streets, Dailey emptied the chambers of his pistol. Seeing that the dog had not fallen, Bowman jumped out to aid in killing the mad animal. It rushed at Bowman and Dailey, hastily slipping another cartridge into his pistol, fired again. The bullet pierced the dog's skull, ricocheted from the pavement and struck Bowman in the chest.

After being taken to the state department of health for treatment against possible infection, the officer returned to duty none the worse for his narrow escape from death.

Avoid Poorly Balanced Breakfasts

Start the day with Quaker Oats—food that "stands by" you.

If you feel tired, hungry, "fidgety," hours before lunch, don't jump to the conclusion of poor health. Thousands have unenergetic mornings because they start the day with wrong breakfasts.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.

THE GUMPS—THE SAGE SPEAKS

The Adopted Wife

By Amelie Rives

(Princess Troubetzkoy)

INSTALLMENT XI.

A STRANGE AGREEMENT.

Again Hilary saw Celia as he had imagined her a night, in the carved chair. . . . Then moving quietly about the beautiful, sober rooms. . . . Not with this strained look upon her face, but tranquil and contented, a fairy changeling glad to be sheltered in such a place from the problems of a world she couldn't understand, since there was no way out of them for her but through that "open door." . . . She liked to be alone, she had said just now, and he too liked it, but being alone with the knowledge that there was some one to turn to when one needed it, and being lonely were very different things. . . . Laura's death had shown him how lonely he could feel, and here was this poor, queer child in the same case, and from the same cause as himself. Why not? Why shouldn't they be together? Why shouldn't that be the simplest and easiest way of settling things?

There was another open door for them should any complications arise, less grim than that of Epictetus, but leading as surely to freedom. All these thoughts flashed through his mind with that flash of inner light. He had never done anything serious on impulse, and the sudden temptation to act on impulse now, fascinated him by its novelty, just as the most cautious people are sometimes seized by a sudden desire to fling themselves from a great height.

Besides, Celia had become really dear to him. Then, as such things occur to one in the gravest moments, he had a clear vision of Gracie's black, chinkpin eyes rounded in dismay at the incredible news. . . . Heard her high squeak of indignation: "At his age! . . . When all his money ought to come to my children!"

"Listen to me, Celia," he said in such a new voice that she stopped shivering, as if roused by it out of herself, and he withdrew his arm from about her shoulders, "We've agreed, haven't we, that we are both rather queer?"

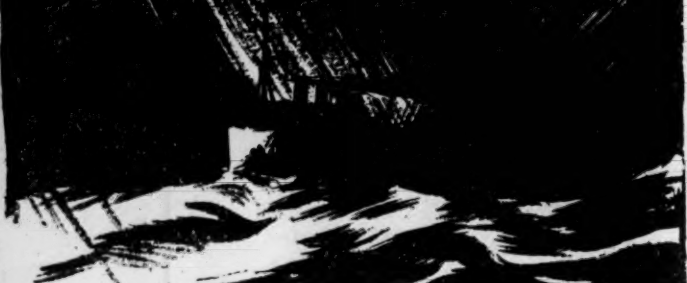

"Yes."

"Then whatever each of us does or says, shouldn't seem so very queer to the other, should it?"

"Very well. I am going to propose an extraordinary queer thing to you . . . in fact, I'm going to propose to you myself, as it's called."

She shrank away from him, and he smiled a little dryly at her, saying:

"Wait a bit, please. What I'm going to suggest is that we shall be married and live together not as husband and wife, but merely as good friends. You have said that you think you miss Laura more than I do. . . . Of course you may, but it seems hardly possible to me. . . . The fact is, my dear, I'm devilishly lonely now that she's gone, and you would be doing me the greatest favor, if you'd come and live with me. . . . I don't say as a daughter—because I've no notion of assuming parental airs with you; but just as Celia, the queer child I'm so fond of. . . . that I like so very much to be with."

The crossing was a rough one, with December gales blowing.

He had talked on at this length, in order to let her recover from the shock of his fantastic suggestion, and as he spoke her head had lifted very slowly toward the sound of his voice, until at last her face was upturned to his, but with closed eyelids. This small, blind face in the greenish shadows of the room, gave him the strangest impression of having risen slowly through deep water. . . . It was as if she had been drowning and he had pulled her to the surface by her hair.

"Well, my dear," he said, "How is it to be?" Do you trust me enough to come and live with me in that way?"

"I trust you entirely, but . . ."

"But?"

"You must not sacrifice yourself for me . . ."

"Now Celia," he warned quizzically, to lighten the rather heavy situation, "it isn't like you to be so conceited."

Her eyes flew open.

"Yes, my dear, I said conceited. . . . besides, I thought you had a better knowledge of me in your quaint shrewdness. . . . I am not of the self-sacrificing type, I assure you. . . . I've asked you to do this first, because it will give me great pleasure, second, because I think you will be fairly happy with me. . . ."

"Oh, no," said Celia.

Hilary felt as if she had sprinkled cold water in his face.

"Of course, if you don't think you could be even fairly happy . . ."

She broke in on him.

"Please . . ."

"Her voice was a gasp. 'I didn't mean that . . . I meant that you had thought of me first . . .'"

Hilary melted, and said teasingly:

"Still so conceited?"

"It isn't conceit," she explained, "it's only that I'm your ward and you know I haven't any one else."

Hilary felt an undignified desire to say:

"Ward be bloned!" but instead he remarked, still teasingly and in a grandiloquent manner:

"I must warn you that I haven't the patience of Kirilenko. Any more objections to my proposal . . . and I withdraw it."

"But I haven't objected," said Celia.

"Then you agree?"

"Yes . . . since you really wish it . . ."

"But do you wish it?"

"I?" said Celia, in genuine surprise, "How could I not wish it? . . . I . . . thank you."

"It's I who thank you, my dear," he returned, quite gravely now, and lifting one of her hands he kissed it, as she had seen him kiss Laura's hand when he was specially pleased with her.

"One thing more," he said, as he released it. "I don't want you to feel imprisoned by our compact. It can be easily broken if need be. Some day, when you love some younger man . . ."

"I shall never love any one."

"Excuse me, but I think you will . . . I sincerely hope you will."

He glanced at her and saw that her pale face had again its locked expression. Not taking any notice of this, he continued:

"When that happens, you have only to tell me frankly, and I will give you a divorce."

"You don't know me," said Celia.

"This time he did laugh a little under his breath."

"And you don't know me," he retorted. "We shall have quite an interesting time trying to find each other out. At all events, we shall have great fun together laughing in our sleeves at Mrs. Grundy."

"I am afraid . . ."

"Afraid of what?"

"Afraid that I shall bore you . . . I am not clever . . . I can't talk well."

"My dear girl," he chaffed her, "as fond as I am of you I don't think I could have asked you to marry me—even in this peculiar fashion—if you'd been a chatterbox."

"You are very good to me," she murmured.

"I am good to myself . . . always," retorted Hilary.

Two weeks later they were quietly married one morning by a civil magistrate and sailed next day for Europe.

The crossing was a rough one, with December gales blowing, but Celia was always eager for a walk on deck.

He liked balancing with her tall fur-coated figure and striding with her against the wind, their long legs moving in perfect unison. She was the only woman who had ever been able to keep step with him.

Laura, bless her! used to toddle three paces to his one. . . . Celia might readily have been his daughter as far as her long thinness went, he reflected much amused. And as they strode swiftly over the heaving deck, Celia for her part was thinking with her secret little smile hidden in her fur collar, "He is more like Donovan's black stork than ever . . ."

S. I. A. A. Champions To Face Mississippi Five in Semi-Finals

Charleston, Kentucky, Newberry and Howard Are Eliminated by Four Stronger Teams—Furman and Citadel Meet for Place in Finals.

Greenville, S. C., March 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—The end of the second day of play in the third annual basketball tournament of the S. I. A. A., being held here this week, found Mercer paired to meet Mississippi college in the first game of the semi-finals tomorrow night, and two South Carolina teams, Furman and Citadel, matched for the nightcap.

Mercer drew a bye the first day of the tournament and defeated Charleston college today, principally through the efforts of Greene, the tallest man in the tournament, who shot 17 points, seven of them from the free line. Mississippi overwhelmed Presbyterian college of South Carolina in the first game of the semi-finals today. Kentucky Wesleyan today, Kentucky had drawn a bye on the first day, and met defeat after a spirited fight this afternoon.

Big Upset.

Newberry sent Stetson back to Florida in the first day of play only to bow before Citadel in the first game tonight. Citadel had drawn a bye for the first day. Howard, in the first upset of the tournament, defeated Wofford, champions of South Carolina, in the final game yesterday and had been picked to beat Furman tonight. The South Carolina Baptists, however, threw a second surprise into the dope sheet by turning the dark horse white and sending Howard back to Alabama.

In the semi-final games tomorrow night Mississippi will face Mercer after having defeated the champions down in Mississippi and lost to them in Georgia before the tournament started. The same thing applies to the other two teams. Citadel having defeated Furman at Charleston and Furman having beaten Citadel in Greenville.

The Kentucky Wesleyan-Mississippi college game was the best one of the day and superior to any so far in the tournament. Both teams were fast and accurate and a man-to-man defense made it more interesting. Mississippi is being picked generally to push into the finals.

Crowd In Uproar.

The Newberry-Citadel contest saw Elzevier and Douglas, the two fastest forwards in the tournament, matched against each other. Both played beautiful floor games. Butler, running guard for Newberry, kept the crowd in an uproar most of the time with a brilliant exhibition of dribbling and dodging.

Captain Rickett, of Newberry, held the Citadel score down by close guarding under the basket.

Mercer, present champions by virtue of a 27-to-23 victory over Charleston.

Fla. Cage Meet Gets Under Way

Gainesville, Fla., March 4.—(P)—Two teams emerged today from nine preliminary battles and one regular first round tilt, in the sixth annual high school basketball tourney, while ten likewise were dropped from the pairings.

Oswego in the first game of the day trimmed Trenton by the score 31 to 19; Leesburg lowered the score of Stuart 30 to 15; St. Petersburg won over Hastings, 30 to 5; Umatilla beat Daytona, 24 to 22; Kissimmee defeated Archer, 20 to 13; Tallahassee triumphed over Ocala, 32 to 14, and in the one and only game play this afternoon of the regular first round, Lakeland, winner of the recent district high school affair, had little difficulty in piling up a 27-to-8 score over Apopka.

Lake City, Orlando and Malone, respectively, forfeited to Perry, Bushnell and Key West, the latter two going into the first round play without a struggle.

The feature battle was the brilliant comeback staged by Umatilla to defeat Daytona Beach by a mere 2-point margin.

St. Petersburg and Leesburg, respectively, by virtue of their preliminary rounds, will go into the first round play tomorrow rather stronger than they previously were.

Miami, Hillsborough and Doral, thus far untried as far as the state affair is concerned and predicted to be among the leading contenders for the hoop championship, will play their first games tomorrow, engaging respectively Umatilla, Brandon and Madison.

HELEN REACHES SEMI-FINALS AT MENTONE

Mentone, France, March 4.—(P)—Helen Willis reached the semi-finals of the Mentone Lawn Tennis tournament today by defeating Miss Evelyn Dearman, 6-1, 6-1. She meets Miss E. M. Harvey, of England, in the semi-finals.

It was just a practice match for the American champion, who experimented with shots at the net, aimed at improving her volleying.

Her defeat of Miss Harvey is regarded as a foregone conclusion. In the final she will meet the winner of Senorita De Alvarez-Mile, Didi Vlasto match.

Helen Willis and J. P. Van Allen, of Brooklyn, won their quarter-final match in the mixed doubles for the cup of nations, defeating Mrs. Marriott and Charles S. Kingsley, of England, 6-4, 6-2.

Helen Willis want "Big Bill" Tilden to come across the ocean and play with her in the mixed doubles at Wimbledon. She expressed the view today that by June she would be in such form that she would prove a worthy partner for him.

"Of course I have no say in the matter and must play with the partner chosen for me by the United States Lawn Tennis association," she said. "But I cannot help feeling that any mixed doubles pair defeating Tilden and me at Wimbledon would know that they had been through a tennis match."

SUZANNE LENGLEN'S HEALTH IMPROVES

Milan, Italy, March 4.—(P)—Already Suzanne Lenglen, who looked fagged out when she arrived in the region of Lake Como to recuperate from her breakdown on the Riviera, is showing the reviving effect of her rest. Today she paid a visit to the Milan tennis club, although she did not play. This afternoon she took a long motor ride accompanied by Lady Wavertree.

MARVEL WINS OVER PAXOS; LONDOS VICTOR

In a thrilling series of wrestling bouts Thursday night at the City Auditorium, the "Masked Marvel" maintained his right to wear the hood he has adopted to hide his identity. Jim Londos, Greek heavyweight, won over Charles Rentrop, German heavyweight, by a 10-second count.

The battle between Londos and Rentrop was most spectacular, and ended only in the last few minutes of the allotted two hours.

If there was a by-play to be considered for the cash customers in the arena, it was the "Greek giant" with everything he had in stock and threw Londos for the first time in three minutes and 10 seconds with a croch hold which had Londos in great agony.

Londos came out for the second fall determined to win, but it required 23 minutes and 10 seconds to do so. Londos was a Japanese wrist lock which spelled success for him. Five of these tumbling holds were clamped on the Little Rock fighter.

The third fall was a slam-bang affair. Londos won it only through superior endurance. After 20 minutes of struggling about the ring the debonaire Greek fastened his favorite hold, a flying headlock, on the Little Rock German and started the count.

Of these spectacular falls were necessary before Rentrop was sufficiently dazed to allow the fall.

The "Masked Marvel" drew a packed house of wrestling fans to the draw with John Paxos. He exhibited great strength and considerable skill, but allowed Paxos to take the first fall with a headlock in 43 minutes.

The "Marvel" won the second fall in six minutes and 30 seconds with a Japanese jiu jitsu wrist lock and body scissors.

Earnest Meadows won his match in one fall with a wrist lock over Bob Parker, of Chicago.

Referee Problem For 'Pa' Stribling

Miami, Fla., March 4.—(P)—With little more than a week of training remaining Gene Tunney and Young Stribling continued their workouts today for their forthcoming bout at Hialeah on March 12.

Doubt still clouds the issue of naming a referee for the affair following vigorous objection raised to Harry Erle, New York ring arbiter, by "Pa" Stribling, father-manager of the Georgia contender.

Stribling, senior, together with Billy Gibson, pilot of Tunney's pugilistic career, and promoter Jess Baum today were considering the two possible referees suggested yesterday.

Announcement was made during the day that the consensus being erected especially for this fight was being completed and by Saturday would likely be ready for the staging of the boxing session.

The bout, which will occur at a site at Hialeah, about eight miles from Miami, only a short distance north of the horse track.

Viewed by a large crowd of admirers the former A. L. E. champion held a fast workout during the afternoon at his ring at the Roman pools on Miami Beach.

He battled three rounds each with two sparring mates, topping the session off with a bombardment of the bag. Tunney appears to be carrying a slight excess of avoirdupois but expects to shear off this surplus poundage early next week.

Stribling continued to go through his paces at the Miami park but the tropical sunshine beat down too fiercely on the uncovered ring, and he retreated to the stands to hammer the bag and do a bit of shadow boxing.

He will appear tomorrow night on a local fight card for a two-round exhibition with three of his partners in turn.

Walker Cup Golfers Leave America May 5

London, March 4.—(P)—Members of the American Walker Cup Golf team will have only a few days to become acclimated before playing their first game in this country. They will sail May 5 and are expected to arrive here May 11 and will go immediately to Sandwich to play for the St. George's Vase May 15.

The following week they are due at Rye, in Sussex, to meet a team of the Oxford and Cambridge Golfing club during a two-day match, which will be in the nature of a pipe-opener for the more serious play in connection with the Walker trophy scheduled for June 1 and 2.

Landis May Attend The Dixie Series

Fort Worth, Texas, March 4.—(P)—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, may attend the 1926 Dixie series, he said while in Fort Worth today. The chief arbiter acknowledged the importance of this baseball event which draws a gate second only to the world's series, and promised that unless business prevents he will be here in September to witness the clash between Texas league and Southern association winners.

LANDIS COMING EAST.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 4.—If there are any rifts in the baseball into this spring, they haven't reached the ears of Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the commissioner of the American game. The arbiter, on his way from Shreveport to St. Louis, said here tonight that there hasn't been even the shadow of a holdout on the baseball landscape thus far. Otherwise he was perfectly noncommittal.

The commissioner said a number of complimentary things about the Dixie series, the Texas league and the league champion Panthers. He declared he hoped to be back in Fort Worth this summer, and if possible, to see a part of the Dixie series this year.

Hoff To Compete In Broad Jump Boys' High Meets Smithies Tonight

Miss Virginia Van found the going easy with Mrs. Stewart Hanley of Detroit and won 6 and 5.

MAY INCREASE QUALIFYING TEST IN OPEN

New York, March 4.—(P)—The championship committee of the United States Golf association acted favorably today upon the recommendation of the Professional Golfers' association for an extensive increase in the number of sectional qualifying tournaments for the 1926 national open championship.

No definite announcement was made, but it is understood approval will be given to the P. G. A. plan to hold 12 or 15 tournaments in various parts of the country instead of three, as in 1925. The finals will be at Columbus July 8, 9 and 10.

Boys' High Meets Smithies Tonight

Boys' High will invade the Tech High basketball court probably for the last time this year for a game tonight. The game will start at 8 o'clock and a large attendance is expected to be on hand for the fray.

The Smithies breezed through the season without a single defeat and capped the city prep basketball title, so one can expect a fast and thrilling game, as the Purple Hurricane of Boys' High is very anxious to be the only team in the city to defeat the dashing Smithies, it being the last opportunity it or any other team will get this season.

Harada, Richards Eliminate Stars

Tampa, Fla., March 4.—(P)—Taichi Harada, Japanese star, eliminated Francis T. Hunter, of New York, Olympic champion, from the Dixie tennis tournament on Davis Island's courts today, winning in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. Harada's play has been one of the features of the tournament.

The little Nipponese net man won today after one of the greatest struggles of his career, for Hunter fought to the finish, both sets being in doubt until final points were scored.

Vincent Richards, of New York, third ranking player in the United States, defeated Douglas Watters, of Mulberry, Fla., 6-2, 6-1. Tomorrow Harada will meet Robert Kinsey, of California, present Dixie champion, and Richards will meet Al Chapin, of Springfield, Mass., in the semi-finals.

Father Given Estate of Son He Never Saw

Separated From Wife a Few Months Before Boy
Was Born.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Chicago, March 4.—In 1898 Harry Wilson quarreled and separated from his wife, Nell Malloy Wilson, a few months before the birth of their child. Today, more than 25 years later, Wilson was awarded $5,500 from the estate of his son, Harry Henry Wilson, by Judge Henry Ogden in the probate court.

After the separation Wilson went to and was lost track of by his relatives. His son, Vernon O. Wilson, grew up to believe John N. Gardner his father. In recent court hearings Wilson charged his father had not secured a divorce from him.

In 1916 Mrs. Wilson died and the following year her son, known as Gardner, then 20 years old, enlisted in the marines. June 5, 1918, he was killed at Chateau-Thierry, and it was found he had made his father-in-law the beneficiary of his war risk insurance, as well as heir to his estate. Wilson came to Chicago and began a fight for the estate.

House Body Opens Hearing On Question of Providing Relief for Needy Farmers

Middle West Farmers Plan To Submit Substi- tute for the Dickinson Measure Today.

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Farm relief, hovering in the background since congress convened, was tackled in earnest by the house agriculture committee today when it began hearing the testimony of representatives of farmers in 11 middle western states.

In their opening statements the delegates repeated their endorsement of the Dickinson bill which would establish a federal farm board and assure the farmers adequate prices for their surplus crops by levying against them an equalization fee and placing it in a revolving fund.

Under questioning by the committee, however, witnesses said they favored a number of amendments and the committee then suggested that a new bill be drafted. The delegation promised to submit the rough outline of a measure tomorrow.

The farmers' representatives, who included the committee of 22 appointed at the Des Moines conference, put in the afternoon and evening working out their plan, members of the house committee having made it clear they would require a practical explanation of any method of relief presented.

"Otherwise," said Representative Tinscher, republican, Kansas, "how can we expect to go on the floor of the house and defend a bill successfully?"

It was decided that the witnesses would confine themselves to the principles they have adopted. Numerous other plans are embodied in pending bills, but they will not be discussed at present.

George N. Peek, of Chicago, chairman of the committee of 22, told the house committee that the problem faced was primarily one affecting the farmers "but upon its solution depends the very life of the nation."

"We are here in the interest of a sound national program for agriculture," he declared.

Governor Hammill, of Iowa, declared agriculture "is not asking any paternalism nor does it seek charity," but "is asking that it be placed on a parity with business."

He added that while he was willing to leave the specific remedy with the committee he believed some broad principles should be laid before it. He said there should be a national board "with real authority and definite instructions, not simply discretionary powers to administer a revolving fund and see that surplus crops found a market."

Representative Purnell, republican, Indiana, a member of the agriculture committee, is arranging for the middle westerners to appear before the senate agriculture committee while they are here.

Shoot To Kill All Robbers, Police Told

Chief Jett Acts To Break Up Organized Crime Element.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 4.—(AP)—The decision of the interstate commerce commission, disapproving the proposed plans for the unification of the Nickel Plate, Chesapeake & Ohio, and Erie railroads, was discussed by O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen with their advisers today. No announcement will be made until the findings have been thoroughly studied.

The conference, which began shortly after the return of Colonel W. A. Colston, chief counsel of the Nickel Plate, from Washington, lasted virtually all day. Others attending included J. J. Bennett, president of the Nickel Plate, and J. J. Baker, who assisted in the hearings before the interstate commerce commission.

In a Van Sweringen interests have two years and six months in which to devise a new plan which will meet with the approval of the commission. The plan does not materially change the rights of the stockholders.

"Should they change the stockholders' rights, the plan must be submitted to the stockholders and the Van Sweringens would have an indefinite time in which to present them to the committee."

These conditions are provided for in an agreement entered into August 20, 1924, between the old stockholders of the five roads and a committee appointed to carry out the plan approved by the commission. Tuesday, the plan was approved by 94 per cent of the stockholders of all roads and had four years to run.

Colston denied tonight that he indicated today that a rehearing would be sought.

This conclusion was drawn from what I said that we have a right to apply for a rehearing under the law," he said.

GIRL WHO CAUSED RAJAH TO GIVE UP THRONE MARRIES

Amritsar, British India, March 3.—(AP)—Mumtaz Begum, dancing girl and central figure in the sensational scandal culminating in the abdication of the Maharajah of Indore last Saturday, was married here today to Abdul Rahman, a wealthy skin dealer and municipal commissioner.

Mumtaz Begum, nautch dancing girl, once the favorite of the powerful Maharajah of Indore, ran away from him after, she alleged, he had cast her aside.

She sought the protection of Abdul Basu, wealthy merchant in Bombay, who paid with his life for protecting her. Her face was mutilated by one of the assassins. They were arrested and convicted. Three were sentenced to death and the other four deported.

GREEK-LETTER SOCIETIES OKEHD IN MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., March 4.—(AP)—Outlawed for fourteen years by an action of the state legislature, Greek-letter fraternities are to again enter state colleges in Mississippi.

The house of representatives today passed the bill, previously passed by the senate, repealing the exclusion act of 1912 and permitting these organizations to be formed with the consent of the faculties of the schools. Representative Taylor, of Monroe county, entered a motion to reconsider, but the vote of 70 to 49 promptly assures passage of the law. Governor Henry L. Whitfield will sign the bill, supporters of the measure believe.

Chief Jett Acts To Break Up Organized Crime Element.

Directing the entire police department to shoot to kill persons caught in the act of committing highway robbery or burglarizing Atlanta homes in order to break up an organized system of robbery, Police Chief E. L. Jett Thursday issued a special letter of instruction to members of the department.

In one of his special orders Chief Jett pointed out that the quantity and nature of goods stolen from homes, stores, and businesses in the city of Atlanta, during the past several years, has been a constant source of concern to the police department. He pointed out that the quantity of goods stolen from homes, stores, and businesses in the city of Atlanta, during the past several years, has been a constant source of concern to the police department.

"This is the second series in this vicinity to be entered within the past several days," he stated. "The first series was the capture of an automobile of some character to haul away the goods." Chief Jett stated. He directed that the evening patrol watch be especially vigilant in capturing all suspicious motor vehicles and send them to police station to be questioned by members of the plainclothes department.

In his other special order, the chief called attention to the boldness of youthful bandits, two of whom robbed the branch store of the A. & P. Tea company at 245 North Jackson street Wednesday night. The robbery was the early part of Wednesday night two others robbed Pete Matrangolis in his delicatessen at 601 Peachtree street. At the latter place the robbers secured $25, fleeing under a rain of bullets and crockery and abandoning an expensive touring car which police are now holding.

Another burglary taking place before daylight Thursday was staged at the grocery of P. T. Boyd at 255 West First street. Police expressed belief that an automobile or motor truck was used in hauling off the loot.

Detectives assigned to the two highway robberies of Wednesday had not effected any arrests late Thursday night, but admitted that they had secured a lead that would likely lead to arrests today.

Accuse Prison Head of Selling Special Favors

New Orleans, March 4.—(AP)—Federal and city government officials were engaged today in investigating alleged irregularities which resulted in the arrests yesterday of the superintendent and two attaches of the house of detention on charges of conspiring to defraud the government by obstructing justice. Government authorities described the case as "more flagrant than the Terry Druggan case in Chicago."

Maurice Picholoup, political leader and superintendent of the prison for 17 years; Gustave Cantrille, day-keeper, and Louis Schellhaas, chauffeur of the superintendent, were charged with conspiring to defraud the government by obstructing justice. Government authorities described the case as "more flagrant than the Terry Druggan case in Chicago."

POLICE HOLD WILSON FOR FEDERAL AGENTS

Charged with violating the Harrison narcotic act, J. F. Wilson, 22, of 717 North Boulevard, is being held at police station for federal authorities after his arrest Thursday night by Detectives W. D. McDonald and L. H. Stetfield. The officers stated they seized an ounce of morphine, in addition to other dope tablets which the prisoner concealed in a cigarette package and dropped accidentally as they were about to arrest him. The detectives also claimed that Wilson had sold some of the drug during the day. He will be given a preliminary hearing before the United States commissioner today.
